

Pedro Pascal

Joshua Smith
Cal Poly

Very Interesting Trivia

- Pedro was a competitive swimmer as a child, even competing in the Texas state championships as an 11-year-old!

- I've seen him in

The Mandalorian (2019 – 2023)

Wonder Woman 1984 (2020)

The Book of Boba Fett (2022)

Triple Frontier (2019)

and more!

- Pedro uses his mother's name professionally rather than his father's to honor her impact on his life.

- Pedro Pascal and fellow actor Oscar Isaac met way back in 2005 working on an off-broadway production making just a couple hundred of dollars each week, and they are still friends today!

My Pedro Watch-list

- The Unbearable Weight of Massive Talent (2022, with Nick Cage!)
- Narcos (2015 — I loved Breaking Bad, I think I will enjoy this also)
- The Last of Us (2023). I normally would never purchase HBO Max, but the clips I see online have got me seriously considering dropping $150 annually...

Great Social Media Presence

While he tragically recently deactivated his twitter account, Pedro's internet thought wall was a constant supply of fun.

Since Pedro Pascal looks up his name on Twitter, what are the chances of him reading this tweet?

Slim.

My Favorite Graphs

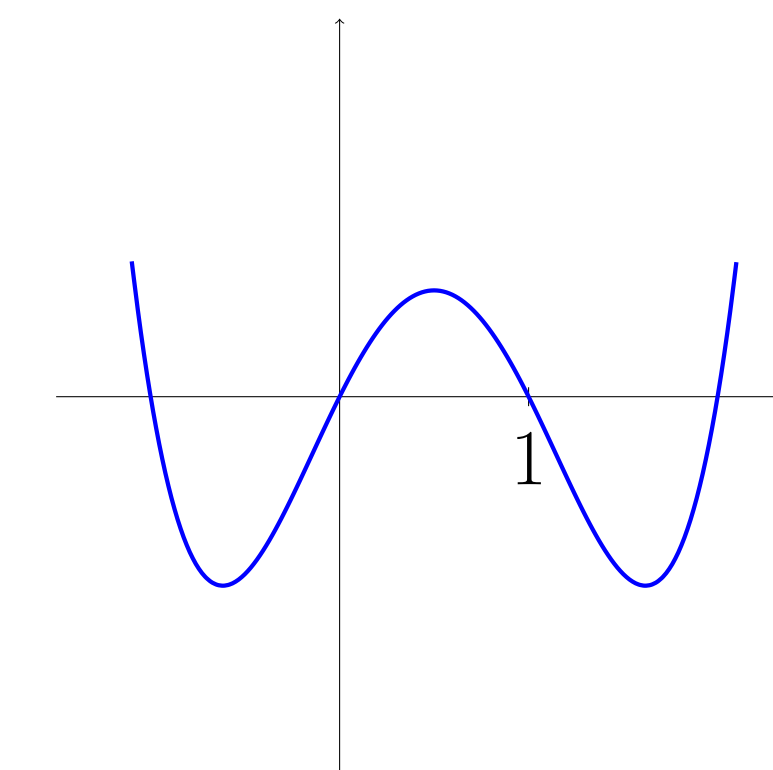

It may seem off topic, but secretly I know Pedro loves graphing different functions as much as me...

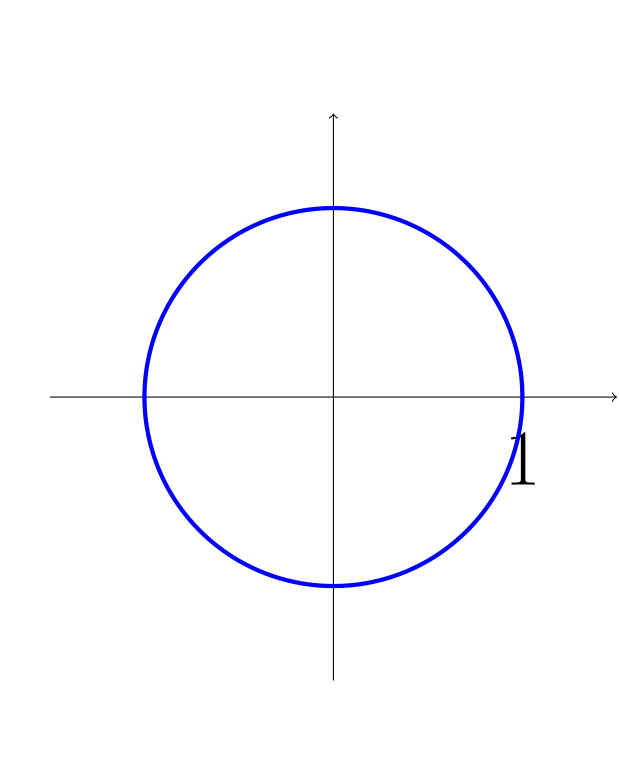

A classic parabola

A simple sine wave

Super silly polynomial!

Not a function, but circles are cool!
