

L^AT_EX Typesetting

MATHEMATICS 351 SYLLABUS

Instructor: Anthony Mendes. Call me Tony or Dr. Mendes.

Email: aamendes@calpoly.edu

Office hours: Mondays from 12:30pm until 2pm and Thursdays from 12pm until 1:30pm in Building 25 Room 202.

Website: The website <https://anthonymendes.github.io/351.html> has course information and many L^AT_EX files. Assignments are turned in on Canvas.

Text: Our textbook is The Not So Short Introduction to L^AT_EX 2_ε by Oetiker, Partl, Schlegl, and Hyna. The book is available on our website. Some course topics cannot be found in the text.

Content: Each week we will introduce new L^AT_EX concepts. By the end of the course, you will be able to use L^AT_EX to create professional looking research articles, presentations, posters, classroom materials, and résumés.

Assignments: Each week there will be an assignment. All source files and the .pdf output for each assignment are to be submitted to Canvas.

Grading: A student who completes 7 out of the 9 assignments on time and with acceptable quality will be assigned “Credit” for the course. Otherwise a student will receive “No Credit”. There are no exams.

L^AT_EXer of the week: Each week one student with an exemplary assignment will be recognized as our “L^AT_EXer of the week”. Their name and assignment will be located in a place of honor on our web site for all to envy and admire. Please let me know if you do not want your name or work on our web site.
